

The Daily Courant.

Friday, May 21. 1708.

From the Antwerp Gazette, dated May 22.

Messina, April 13.

THE Marquis de los Balbases, our Vice-roy, has taken up his Residence here for the ensuing Summer. All the new Fortifications made for the Defence of our Harbour, are finish'd; and Men are kept at Work upon the new Fortifications of this City on the Side towards the Country; but in all Appearance they will not be perfected before the End of Summer. We have receiv'd an Account here, that a Bark which sail'd from hence the 8th of this Month with several Persons of Quality on board for Toulon, was attack'd in the Height of Lipari by a Privateer of Naples and taken. Money is very scarce in this Kingdom; but 'tis hop'd that the Cleugy, who by Order from King Philip are to meet here in a general Assembly the 7th of next Month, will grant a Subsidy of 4 Millions of Duckets which our Viceroy has intimated to them the King expects from them. The Great Master of Malta has desir'd our Viceroy to furnish him with some Gunners and Fireworkers; and accordingly a certain Number will be sent to that Island next Week by a Maltese Ships that now lie in our Harbour.

From the Leid. and Amft. Gaz. dated May 25.

Venice, May 11. The Chevalier Alouisio Mocenigo, who formerly went Ambassador from this Republick to the Court of England, is elected to go Ambassador to Constantinople. The Earl of Manchester, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain to this State, is set out this Morning for Vicenza. General Vendramini sail'd to Day for Dalmatia, with 2 Galleys. They write from Modena, that the 2 Regiments of Imperial Horse detach'd from the Kingdom of Naples for the Milanesi, have made a Halt at Nonantola; And that the 5 Prisoners of State they have with them, are lodg'd at Rubera, till the Arrival of 400 Imperial Horse which are to come from the Parmesan, to guard the said Prisoners to Milan. We have receiv'd by the Way of Dalmatia Letters from Constantinople dated the 24th of March last, importing among other things, that the Turks perfid in their Resolution to observe the Treaty of Carlowitz. They write from Brescia, that the Roads are repairing between all the Places belonging to this State through which the Queen of Spain is to pass; and that all Preparations are made for receiving Her on the Frontier.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 25.

Milan, May 12. The Ducal Palace is fitting up with all Diligence, for the Reception of the Queen of Spain. The 12 Gentlemen elected to meet and compliment her on the Part of this State, are preparing to go to wait for her at Brescia; whence 'tis advis'd, that the Republick of Venice have order'd the Proveditore-general Delfino to receive and treat Her with all possible Honours, during her stay there; and that Lodgings are made ready for her numerous Retinue. 'Tis reported her Majesty will not stay long here, desiring to pass over to Catalonia with the Fleet command'd by Sir John Leake, who is daily expected at Genoa; from whence they write, that a Ship arriv'd from Marseilles had reported, that the said Fleet had been seen in the Height of the Gulf of Lyons.

Amsterdam, May 5. They write from Paris, that they had receiv'd an Account from Rome, of the Emperour's having sent to the Pope that the Princess of Woltembuttel Wife of King Charles, would pass over Part of the Ecclesiastical Territories in her Way through Italy to embark for Catalonia, and that his Imperial Majesty desir'd his Holiness would cause such Honours to be shewn her as is allow'd by the Holy See to a Queen of Spain: They tell us, that the Pope being desirous to keep fair with both Parties engag'd in the present War for the Spanish Monarchy, is not a little perplex'd on this Subject, and that he had sent Orders to his Nuncio at the Court of France, to confer about it with the Ministers of that Court; but that the Result of those Conferences was not known. Some are of Opinion, that one Expedient the Pope may think of, is to cause the said Princess to be complimented with the Style of Queen and Majesty, without further Explanation: But from Italy 'tis advis'd, that she has resolv'd not to receive in the Places through which she is to pass, any Letters, Compliments, or Embassies, unless the Title of Catholick Majesty be given her.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 25. &c.

Roveredo, May 13. Prince Eugene of Savoy's Field Baggage, which was sent hither from Milan, is this Morning gone on for Germany. The Podesta and the Captain of Justice of Verona, make magnificent Preparations against the Arrival of the Queen of Spain, who is expected here the 18th from Trent: From hence she will proceed through the following Places, Alla, Borghetto, Dolce, Viatigna, Verona, Castelvaro, Desenzano, Pone di San Biagio, Brescia, Hospiatello, Palazzuolo, Urgnano, and Canonica, to Milan.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 25.

Stockholm, May 10. Three of our Men of War of 60 Guns, sail'd Yesterday from this Place for Caffelcroon, where Admiral Aukerstein lies ready to put to Sea with the Fleet fitted out against the Muscovites, consisting of 28 Men of War, 11 Frigates, 4 Bomb-Vessels, and 7 Pire-Ships. 'Tis talk'd this Fleet is to bombard Archangel, or some other Port belonging to the Czar of Muscovy.

With a Copy of their Excommunicating Proces for the same, with Animadversions thereon. By James Jackson. Printed for B. Bragg in Pater-noster-Row.

To Morrow will be publish'd,

An Essay towards the Theory of the Intelligible World, intuitively consider'd. Design'd for 49 Parts. Consisting of a Preface, a Postscript, and a little something between. By Gabriel John. Enrich'd with a faithful Account of his Ideal Voyage, and illustrated with Poems by several Hands, as likewise with other strange things not insufferably Clever, nor furiously to the Purpose. Printed in the Year 1700, &c. and sold by R. Knaplock at the Bishop's-Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The Famous Royal-Essence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwigs, &c. being the most delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the best Preserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour, makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been so exceedingly admir'd and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry, it has been basely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Aller's, a Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Family Elixer for all manner of Aches and Pains, or Strains, Weakness, or Loss of the Use of the Limbs, Lameness, &c. Sciatica, Numbness, Trembling, Palsey, Convulsions, or Cramp in any part. It is a noble Medicament, far above the Sphere of ignorant Pretenders; and doth that in one Day, which filthy greasy Oils, or Ointments, could never do. It neither wears like Water, greases like Oil, nor fouls the finest Linen, but momentarily enters in, and suddenly takes away the oldeft Grief even to astonishment, after a too other things have been us'd in vain. Sold at John's Coffee-House in Swithins-Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, price 2 s. the Viol.

A Water that perfectly Cures the Itch, or any Itching Humour in a few Days, without necessity of Purging, or the dangerous use of Mercury. As will be Attest'd, if desir'd, by several Persons of sufficient Credit. Price 1 s. 6 d. Also the best and truest Spirits of Scurvy-Grafs, both Golden and Plain, which effectually Cures the Scurvy, and clears the Blood of all Impurity. Price 8 d. a Bottle. Likewise the true Spirits of Sage, and Ground-Ivy, at 8 d. a Bottle. Allowance to those that take Quantities. Prepared by A. Downing, Chymist, at the Golden Crown and Ball in Hand-Alley without Bishopt's-Gate.

An Infallible Mixture for Horses that are Broken-Winded; which does perfectly cure them, after many Things premilie have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small Time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed, by Humours dripping thereon; occasion'd from Hard-Ridings, Colds, &c. causing presently a Free Perspiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again as well as ever; it immediately cures those Horses only a little touch'd in their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezings, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Distempers incident to them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a Good Breath: And in a Word, by this very Medicine only many Horses have been made so perfectly Sound, and have been Sold and valu'd at 10 and 12 l. which by being Broken-winded could not before be Sold for 4 or 5 l. Is only Sold at Mrs. Bradbury's, at the Golden-Ball, over-against Stocks-Market in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. each, with Printed Directions.
